NICOLE PUREMOTION CHAIR

With a robust design profile and solid construction the Nicole delivers a calm authority and distinct comfort, making it ideal for both office and home environments. The full ergonomic support is a great asset for extended stays and a careful attention to detail provides a unique headrest and solid, enveloping armrests. While the base can have a stained plywood finish generally a fabric or leather cover is used to complete the look.

Not suitable for a person exceeding the weight of 120kg.
